Nail-biting finale to final Final

So "The Final Final" proved to be one of the most nail-biting as the rain fell and the frustration mounted.

But when the elements permitted, Gloucestershire and Warwickshire showed what this premier one-day competition is all about.

Warwickshire, five time winners and another five runners-up, had the pedigree and the star performers. Gloucestershire's gains have been altogether more modest, with just two wins.

But the second of those was only a year ago, and other successes at HQ have established them as the one-day team that everyone has to beat.

In a unique turn of events Worcestershire did just that in this season's third round. But victory on the field was not enough. A well-publicised infringement of the laws led to a replay and a Gloucestershire victory.

The Gloucesters improved match by match, and events in the Final underlined the view that their name was on the final NatWest Trophy.

Gloucestershire won't complain. Warwickshire may wish they had bowled man of the match Allan Donald from the outset of a truncated second innings.

Defeat for Warwickshire denied them the chance of matching Lancashire's record of 79 wins in all matches since this tournament started back in 1963. They also lie second in the list of all-time champions, Lancashire having lifted the prize seven times. And Lancashire have claimed 71 man of the match awards, compared with Warwickshire's 69.

Gloucestershire's triumph gives them 48 wins from 85 matches. Apart from Lancashire and the latest opponents only Middlesex and Sussex have won the competition more, with four successes each. Only three first-class counties have so far failed to win the competition, and only Durham have yet to appear in the Final.

Lancashire were the last side to win two successive Finals, and victory in 1972 made it three in a row. Before that you have to go back to Sussex, who won the first two Finals in 1963 and 1964.

This final NatWest Trophy Newswire contains a summary of stats dating back to the start of NatWest's sponsorship in 1981 and beyond.

It features details of all the top batsmen and bowlers plus a breakdown of the best and the worst from each of the first class counties.

NatWest's focus now switches to the NatWest Series. England won the inaugural tournament this summer against Zimbabwe and the West Indies, and they will defend it next year against Australia and Pakistan.

NatWest Trophy Quotes

- "While you are still in the competition, you are in with a chance. When you are out you think of all the things that could have happened. We have played our 'free' card and now we have to be a little more honest in our performances than we were the first time we played Worcestershire." - Gloucestershire coach John Bracewell after winning the replayed third round tie.
- "They will feel aggrieved, but I can't do anything about that. Personally I'm not a sulker. I throw my tantrums immediately and then get on with life. They have to make that choice. To be honest, I don't think the players were particularly hyped-up and shook hands afterwards. I think it is more of an administrative thing, and someone maybe thinking: I might have stuffed up; I feel a bit guilty about it and I might get angry'. The players were really just the meat in the sandwich in this situation. They are just paid to play and got on with it." - Bracewell again.
- "We are bitterly disappointed. With all that has gone on around this game, there was a bit more spice. But we were ordered to replay it, which we did. We have lost and we will take it on the chin." - Bill Athey, coach of beaten Worcestershire.
- "I've never taken a catch like that before and the umpire Nigel Cowley came up to me and asked me to give him six numbers for this night's lottery." - Warwickshire's Ashley Giles after his catch dismissed Derbyshire dangerman Dominic Cork for six in the fourth round.
- "Warney's been worth every single penny we've paid for him and more. He's a fantastic team man and to have him on your side has been absolutely superb. I've played with some seriously great cricketers, but Warne's enthusiasm and encouragement, never mind what he can do with a ball in his hand, makes him second to none. I'd love to get through to the final without him now just for him and him alone just for what he has done for Hampshire this season." - Hampshire captain Robin Smith after the quarter final win over Middlesex.
- "We've just watched one of the most awesome innings we are every going to see on a cricket field. He has had his ups and downs, but today was very much the day for Andrew Flintoff." - Man of the match adjudicator David Gower after Flintoff hit 135 from 110 deliveries as Lancashire humbled Surrey.
- "It has to go down as one of the great innings in one-day domestic cricket. I remember watching Viv Richards' great innings at Old Trafford a few years ago and that was marginally better, but this is very close behind it." - Lancashire captain John Crawley at the same match.
- "That's probably as well as I've ever played for Lancashire because I've been wanting to go out there, bat through and knock off the runs like that. I had a shocking net this morning and I've had a few of those recently and I don't really know what clicked to make me play the way I did. I suppose hitting my first ball for four helped and confidence plays a big part." - Andrew Flintoff.
- "It's gone really well and we are chuffed. Lord's is a fantastic place to play, we've been there a few times before and it should be a great day for us." - Centurion Nick Knight after leading Warwickshire into the final.
- "We definitely missed Shane Warne on a wicket like that, and maybe batting towards the end. He's a good striker of the ball, that would have been handy. But we were beaten by the better side and we'll come back from here." - Robin Smith after Hampshire's semi-final exit.
- "Television pictures have proved that it was correct and I thought it was too wide even for me to hit. Alan (Whitehead) said that he didn't think I hit it and I didn't think I had, but I was really pleased for Alan because he's had a bit of a rough week and to have a decision like that to make first up wasn't the best. The Lancashire players went ballistic which they are entitled to do, but as cricketers you have to accept these decisions and I thought they bowled far too wide at us." - Kim Barnett, who survived the early scare to lead Gloucestershire back to Lord's.
- "The fact that they have been underdogs and they have come back all the time," - Channel 4 commentator Richie Benaud on what impressed him about Gloucestershire.
- "You have got characters in there like Kim Barnett, who played in the first NatWest ever and now he's played in the last one. And Derbyshire and Gloucestershire won them both," - Benaud again.
- "I am going to go for the man who maybe didn't quite have enough of a chance to tip the game back in Warwickshire's favour but in the context of this game an outstanding performance," - David Gower after selecting Allan Donald as man of the match in the Final Final.
