TROPHY

First Round

New season, new sponsor, new look

English cricket's premier one-day knockout competition this season has a new look - and a new sponsor.

The Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy offers a chance of glory to 56 teams, from the first class counties down to the minor counties and the county board sides.

The international contribution from Scotland, Ireland, Holland and Denmark will be missing from the 2001 competition as those nations challenge for the ICC Trophy, but they will be back in contention later in the summer when the first two rounds of the 2002 competition will be played.

Cheltenham & Gloucester, the financial services company, has agreed to sponsor the tournament for three years.

"C&G is delighted to be the new sponsor of one of British cricket's most prestigious trophies," said the company's managing director, Roger Burden.

"We have a long-standing association with the game, sponsoring the popular Cheltenham Cricket Festival as well as many grass roots clubs and events. This new association is a reinforcement of our commitment to cricket at all levels."

The clash of the round at the first stage is the meeting of minor counties rivals Lincolnshire and Suffolk, at Sleaford's picture postcard ground.

Mark Fell's Lincs finished as runners-up in last season's Minor Counties Eastern Division, one place ahead of Suffolk.

Fell said: "We have a very positive approach to every match. It's very important to win because Notts at home in the third round would be a big money-spinner for the county."

Derbyshire CB are out to create as big a stir in the 2001 Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy as they did last season. Defeat against the full Derbyshire side finally ended the club cricketers' run after victory against Gloucestershire CB.

Derbyshire CB development manager Colin Davies knows his side could cause an upset at Wiltshire. He said: "We had a good run last year and created an awful lot of local interest when we played Derbyshire."

"We go for a development squad with one or two more experienced players. We're quietly confident and think we've got a bit of a chance."

Wiltshire v Derbyshire CB

Venue: Chippenham CC, tel: 01249 652867. Contact: Chris Sheppard, PO Box 10, Fairford, Gloucestershire, GL7 4YR.

How they did in 2000 Wiltshire – R1 bt Scotland by 7 wks, R2 lost to Middlesex Board by 3 runs
Derbyshire CB – R1 bye, R2 bt Gloucestershire CB by 50 runs, R3 lost to Derbyshire by 223 runs

WILTSHIRE are bidding to avoid the potential banana skin of Derbyshire CB when the club cricketers arrive at Chippenham. The home side who finished sixth in the Minor Counties Championship Western Division last year are out to secure a trip to face Cambridgeshire at March in round two.

The south midlands team are desperate to avoid a repeat of last season's embarrassing three-run second-round defeat against Middlesex CB.

Wiltshire secretary Chris Sheppard said: "We beat

Scotland last year and it was the highlight of the season. We take all our matches very seriously so we're looking forward to it and hoping the weather will brighten up a bit." The Derbyshire side have high hopes of repeating last year's feat of reaching the third round in the Trophy. After receiving a bye at the first stage, they charged to a 50-run victory against Gloucestershire CB before coming back to earth with a 223-run reverse against the full Derbyshire county side.

How they did in 2000 Oxfordshire – R1 bye, R2 lost to Wales by 8 wks
Huntingdonshire – R1 bt Hampshire CB by 28 runs, R2 lost to Yorkshire CB by 5 wks

OXFORDSHIRE will aim for more success in the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy than they enjoyed in last season's competition.

After receiving a bye into the second round, they slumped to an eight-wicket defeat against Wales minor counties to end hopes of a mouthwatering contest against Essex in round three.

Club secretary Peter O'Neill said: "We want to do as well as we can and it will be great if we can play Surrey in the third round. We've played Huntingdon twice before and won but anything can happen in cricket." Huntingdonshire Cricket Board enjoyed success at the first round stage of last year's competition when they completed a 28-run victory against Hampshire CB at Cove. After totalling just 148 from their 50 overs, they skittled the hosts out for 120, with William Young taking three for 22 from his 10 overs.

Victory at Challow & Childrey would set up a clash with Surrey CB at Cheam in round two.

Shropshire v Devon

Venue: Shrewsbury, tel: 01743 363655. Contact: Neville Birch, 24 Ridgebourne Road, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, SY3 9AB.

How they did in 2000 Shropshire – R1 Shropshire bt Ireland by 5 wks, R2 Shropshire bt Surrey CB by 6 wks, R3 lost to Somerset by 27 runs
Devon – R1 bye, R2 Devon bt Staffordshire by 192 runs, R3 lost to Surrey by 8 wks

SHROPSHIRE were agonisingly close to pulling off one of the shocks of last year's Trophy against Somerset and they are out for more of the same this year, starting against Devon at Shrewsbury.

Right-handed batsman James Ralph cracked a sensational 102 from just 81 balls to haul his side within touching distance of the county side's 262. But Ralph's team-mates failed to support his brilliant innings and Somerset scraped through by just 27 runs. Shropshire went on to finish third in the Western Division, two places above their Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy round one opponents Devon.

Winners play Sussex CB away at Hastings in R2

The west country side also enjoyed themselves in last season's competition, with Matthew Theedom claiming a superb five for 18 in the crushing 192-run victory against Staffordshire. Devon amassed 237 before Theedom's heroics reduced the midlands county to a paltry 46 all out. Surrey visited Exmouth in three and destroyed Devon's hopes of making the last 16 as they romped to an eight-wicket triumph. Devon secretary Geoff Evans added: "We seem to have good games with Shropshire and the teams are fairly evenly matched. We always look forward to going to Shropshire."

Lincolnshire v Suffolk

Venue: Sleaford, tel: 01529 303368. Contact: Tony North, "Koorah", Whisby Road, Whisby Moor, Lincoln, LN6 9BY.

How they did in 2000 Lincolnshire – R1 bt Cheshire on wkts lost, R2 bt Holland by 95 runs, R3 lost to Lancashire by 10 wkts
Suffolk – R1 lost to Lancashire CB by 4 wkts

LINCOLNSHIRE fans are already dreaming about the prospect of a derby showdown with Nottinghamshire in round three of the Cheltenham and Gloucester Trophy. The round one clash with last season's fellow Minor Counties high-fliers Suffolk is the tie of the round and both sides know the date with Essex CB in round two could be the stepping-stone to a clash with Notts on June 27. Before the mouth-watering chance of a meeting with Notts, both captains will be keen to focus on the job in hand victory at the picturesque Sleaford ground on May Day. Lincs and Suffolk finished second and third respectively in last season's Eastern Division, and the home side will hope to repeat last year's progression to round three.

After squeezing past Cheshire by virtue of losing nine wickets rather than the opposition's 10 with the scores tied at 204, Lincs beat Holland by 95 runs before Lancashire eased to a 10-wicket win in the next round.

Suffolk suffered an embarrassing four-wicket loss to Lancashire CB in round one.

Suffolk chairman Norman Atkins said: "We're always hopeful of a win in the trophy we haven't had too much luck in recent years. We're hopeful of a good season."

Somerset CB v Wales

How they did in 2000 Somerset CB – R1 lost to Staffordshire by 7 wkts
Wales – R1 bt Buckinghamshire by 11 runs, R2 bt Oxfordshire by 8 wkts, R3 lost to Essex by 103 runs

FORMER West Indies star Phil Simmons has been given an added incentive as Wales prepare to take on Somerset CB at North Perrott.

If Wales can negotiate the test of their opening two rounds, then they will be paired with Leicestershire, the county served so well by Simmons in his prime.

Secretary Bill Edwards said: "We've got to the third round on three occasions in the past and we'd like to do it again and face Leicestershire. Phil Simmons plays for us and he'd love to go back to his old county."

Somerset CB will hope to go at least one stage further than they managed in last season's competition.

After being put into bat in their first round clash against Staffordshire, they were bowled out for 124 with Wesley Durston (25) the only man to offer any resistance.

Andrew Moulding, Somerset's cricket development officer, said: "The players are looking forward to the game and the team will be led by Kevin Parsons, twin brother of Keith who plays for the county."

How they did in 2000 Kent CB – R1 bt Worcestershire CB by 50 runs, R2 bt Warwickshire CB by 45 runs, R3 lost to Hampshire by 8 wkts
Hampshire CB – R1 lost to Huntingdonshire by 28 runs

KENT CB are hoping for better luck this year as they take on club cricketers from the county that wrecked their dream of an upset in the 2000 Trophy.

Hampshire's season of woe showed one bright point their form in the Trophy and they made it to the semi-finals. On the way, they thumped Kent CB by eight wickets at the third-round stage.

It was a rude awakening for the team from the garden of England, after victories against Worcestershire CB, by 50 runs, and a 45-run win against their Warwickshire counterparts at Stratford-upon-Avon.

Kent CB now take on Hants CB at The Mote and team manager Chris Swadkin said: "We've played them for many years and always had good, close battles with them. We suspect they'll be tough competition this year."

Hampshire CB could not come close to their county colleagues' run, with a 28-run reverse at the hands of Huntingdonshire ending their hopes at the first stage.

Middlesex CB v Northumberland

Venue: Southgate, tel: 020 8886 8381. Contact: David Holland, Lord's Cricket Ground, London, NW8 8QN.

How they did in 2000 Middlesex CB – R1 bye, R2 bt Wiltshire by 3 runs, R3 lost to Sussex by 9 wks
Northumberland – R1 bt Northamptonshire CB by 6 wks, R2 bt Bedfordshire by 7 wks, R3 lost to Leicestershire by 226 runs

MIDDLESEX CB will be led by Alastair Fraser, brother of former England international Angus Fraser, in their Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy campaign.

Fraser's men face Northumberland in their opening tie, knowing that victory will set up a home tie with Berkshire in round two.

David Holland, secretary of the Cricket Board, said: "We've never played them before and players from both sides will be short of match practice. Getting to round three is the main objective and we'd hope to get that far."

Northumberland will hope for a repeat of last season's impressive form which saw them move into round three before being defeated by Leicestershire. Graeme Angus, who took 23 wickets in last year's minor counties championship, will spearhead the attack.

Northumberland will want a better return with the bat from former Yorkshire batsman Bradley Parker, who scored 228 runs in 15 championship innings in 2000.

Bedfordshire v Nottinghamshire CB

Venue: Wardown Park, Luton, tel: 01582 727855. Contact: Philip August, 35 Amberley Gardens, Bedford, MK440 3BT.

How they did in 2000 Bedfordshire – R1 bye, R2 lost to Northumberland by 7 wks
Nottinghamshire CB – R1 lost to Gloucestershire CB by 8 wks

BEDFORDSHIRE batsmen Timothy and Andrew Roberts will seek to maintain their impressive form from last season's Minor Counties Championship when they face Nottinghamshire CB in the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy at Wardown Park.

Both averaged over 40 in the championship, with former Northamptonshire star Andrew notching 557 runs with a highest score of 140.

Bedfordshire slumped to a seven-wicket loss against Northumberland in last season's competition, with a spirited 61 from Jeremy Page the only highlight of a disappointing display.

Nottinghamshire CB know victory will set up a second round clash with Minor Counties champions Dorset at Dean Park.

Coach Mick Newell said: "The team will be mainly made up of good young players with a couple of experienced lads included too. Chris Tolley will captain the side and the incentive is to get to the third round and play a county side."

Winners play Dorset away at Dean Park in R2

Staffordshire v Worcestershire CB

Venue: Porthill Park, tel: 01782 626350. Contact: Stuart Bourne, 10 The Pavement, Brewood, Staffordshire, ST19 9BZ.

How they did in 2000 Staffordshire – R1 bt Somerset CB by 7 wks, R2 lost to Devon by 192 runs
Worcestershire CB – R1 lost to Kent CB by 50 runs

EXPERIENCED batsman Laurie Potter will hope to help Staffordshire to a place in round two of the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy when they face Worcestershire CB at Porthill Park.

The 38-year-old, formerly of Kent, scored 37 in helping his side to a seven-wicket win against Somerset CB in the last year's first round.

However, he was unable to repeat the trick in round two as Steven Dean's men were skittled out for 46 by Devon to condemn Staffordshire to a 192-run defeat.

Victory for Worcestershire CB will hand them a second round tie against Cumberland at Kidderminster.

They will take confidence from Staffordshire's poor showing in last season's Minor Counties championship but defeat against Kent CB in the first round of last season's Trophy will prevent them being over-confident.

Bowler Kabir Ali was in that side but is now part of Worcestershire's first-team squad.

How they did in 2000 Lancashire CB – R1 bt Suffolk by 4 wkts, R2 lost to Essex CB by 15 runs
Yorkshire CB – R1 bye, R2 bt Huntingdonshire by 5 wkts, R3 lost to Yorkshire by 130 runs

THERE will be a 'War of the Roses' as Lancashire CB face Yorkshire CB in the first round of the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy at Nelson.

After a successful start to last year's campaign, when they defeated Suffolk by four wickets, Lancashire CB crashed out in round two when Essex CB defeated them by 15 runs. Club secretary Dave Edmundson said: "Roses matches are always special and to have one in the first round of this competition makes it even more special for the recreational players involved."

Yorkshire CB progressed to round three of the 2000 competition before being defeated by Yorkshire's illustrious county side.

Former Middlesex and Yorkshire batsman Richard Kettleborough was included in the Board's side and made a plucky 31 as his side fell 130 runs short of the target. Victory will provide a second round clash against Northamptonshire CB.
