

GLADIATORS STILL FIGHTING FOR CROWN

Canterbury is the venue for this weekend's most eagerly anticipated clash as Kent Spitfires face last season's Norwich Union League Division One champions Gloucestershire Gladiators.

Matthew Fleming's side are currently second in the table with 20 points from six games and the Gladiators are in desperate need of victory to keep their hopes of a second successive title triumph alive.

Surrey Lions' Adam Hollooake

They are eight points off the pace at present but will be buoyed by their eight-run win against Somerset Sabres in an absorbing clash last week.

Experienced campaigner Kim Barnett was the star of the show as he struck a sparkling 94.

Leicestershire Foxes aim to maintain their 100% record as they host struggling Surrey Lions at Grace Road.

Vince Wells' side have swept aside five opponents already this season and despite the wealth of one-day talent on offer to the Lions, Adam Hollooake's men are eighth in the table with just one win to their name.

Two sides who have failed to make much impression so far this season meet at Northampton, with Northamptonshire Steelbacks facing Yorkshire Phoenix.

The Steelbacks are rock-bottom after five successive defeats and David Byas' men are failing to build on last season's position of second after just two wins so far this year.

The leading wicket-taker so far this season will be on show at Taunton as the Sabres meet Nottinghamshire Outlaws.

Steffan Jones has snared 14 victims and will seek to add to that tally against the third-placed Outlaws.

CHALLENGERS MEET AT THE RIVERSIDE

It is a tale of contrasting fortunes in the Norwich Union League Division Two this weekend.

Title challengers Durham Dynamos and Glamorgan Dragons meet at Chester-le-Street while early season strugglers Middlesex Crusaders face Essex Eagles at Southgate.

The Dynamos are two points behind leaders Worcestershire Royals with a game in hand and are aiming to bounce back from a disappointing 64-run defeat against Hampshire Hawks in their last outing.

In contrast, the Dragons rattled up a massive total of 305 for six from 45 overs in their last match as they romped to a 111-run win against the Royals.

The Crusaders seek their second win of the season against Ronnie Irani's strugglers, who also have won just once during the current campaign.

Despite their slow start, Irani and Australian star Stuart Law both average over 40 with the bat for the Eagles but they already look destined to remain in Division Two next season.

Angus Fraser's Crusaders must add more resilience to their batting, after slumping to a 42-run defeat against Derbyshire Scorpions in their last match despite being set a modest target of 197.

Andrew Strauss was the only man to make a significant contribution with the bat as he scored 35.

KENT SPITFIRES versus GLOUCESTERSHIRE GLADIATORS

MATCH PREVIEW

Gloucestershire Gladiators make the trip to Canterbury desperate to keep their hopes of a second successive Norwich Union League title alive.

But Mark Alleyne's side need to be in top form against the Kent Spitfires who are currently second in the table, level on points with leaders Leicestershire Foxes.

Matthew Fleming's men will be brimming with confidence after a tight two-wicket win against Surrey Lions in their last outing, Geraint Jones and Fleming were the heroes after they slumped to 70 for six chasing 155 to win.

Jones scored 39 and Fleming an unbeaten 26 to help them record their fourth win of the season.

The Gladiators come into the clash on the back of an eight-run win against Somerset Sabres, where wily old campaigner Kim Barnett was the star of the show with a sumptuous 94.

However, they have already lost four times this season, just two defeats less than during the whole of last year's glorious campaign.

LEICESTERSHIRE FOXES versus SURREY LIONS

MATCH PREVIEW

Norwich Union League leaders Leicestershire Foxes are full of confidence as they prepare to face Surrey Lions at Grace Road.

After five successive victories, Vince Wells' men fear no-one and despite the Lions' wealth of one-day talent, the Foxes are confident their 100% record will remain intact.

Overseas star Daniel Marsh has been in red-hot form with the bat so far this season, averaging over 68 from his five innings.

Adam Hollioake's troops have failed to shine this season despite topping the Division Two table in 2000.

They slumped to a disappointing two-wicket loss against Kent Spitfires in their last encounter with a total of 154 proving to be not enough at The Oval.

With just four points from their first five games, the Lions are 16 points behind the Foxes and they appear destined for a relegation battle this season if results don't improve in the near future.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE STEELBACKS versus YORKSHIRE PHOENIX

MATCH PREVIEW

Early season strugglers Northamptonshire Steelbacks and Yorkshire Phoenix come face-to-face at Northampton in the Norwich Union League.

Both sides were in the running for the title last season as they finished in second and third places, just two points behind eventual winners Gloucestershire Gladiators.

But neither side have been able to produce the same form this year, with the Steelbacks bottom of the table after five straight defeats that has sapped confidence amongst David Ripley's men.

The Phoenix have fared little better and have just eight points to their name to leave them well adrift of the leading pack.

However, they will take confidence from beating the Steelbacks at Headingley two weeks ago with skipper David Byas scoring 52 in the Phoenix's total of 204 for six.

The visitors could only reply with 188 for nine despite half-centuries from Russell Warren and Alec Swann.

SOMERSET SABRES versus NOTTINGHAMSHIRE OUTLAWS

MATCH PREVIEW

After narrowly avoiding relegation to Division Two of the Norwich Union League last year, Somerset Sabres appear set for another season of struggle if early results this term are anything to go by.

Jamie Cox's men have won two of their opening seven games to leave them in sixth place in the table, 10 points behind leaders Leicestershire Foxes.

The Sabres lost to the Nottinghamshire Outlaws at Trent Bridge a fortnight ago but now want revenge following the six-wicket defeat.

After the Sabres notched 232 for nine from 45 overs, including an unbeaten 58 from Keith Parsons, the Outlaws responded in magnificent fashion.

Australian ace Greg Blewett scored a glorious 89 and Usman Afzaal, who has since been rewarded with an England call-up for the first Ashes Test, led the hosts home with a magnificent 94 not out from just 104 balls.

The Outlaws are third in the table and performing well following their promotion to the top flight last season.

DURHAM DYNAMOS versus GLAMORGAN DRAGONS

MATCH PREVIEW

After bright starts to the Norwich Union League for Durham Dynamos and Glamorgan Dragons, the clash between the two is sure to be an exciting affair at Chester-le-Street.

The Dynamos are two points behind Division Two leaders Worcestershire Royals after winning four of their first six games but they will be desperate to bounce back from a 64-run loss against Hampshire Hawks in their last encounter.

After being set a target of 223, Jon Lewis' men slumped to 158 all out despite 39 from Australian Martin Love.

While the Dynamos are seeking to return to winning ways, the Dragons will be hoping for more of the same after thrashing the Royals by 111 runs a fortnight ago.

Jimmy Maher (94) and Robert Croft (59) were in particularly dominant form as the Dragons rattled up a formidable total of 305 for six from their 45 overs.

Croft then took three wickets to complete a memorable day for the off-spinner, as the Royals were dismissed for 194.

MIDDLESEX CRUSADERS versus ESSEX EAGLES

MATCH PREVIEW

Two of the early season Norwich Union League Division Two strugglers meet at Southgate, as Middlesex Crusaders host Essex Eagles.

Both sides have won just one of their six fixtures and unless performances radically improve, there appears little chance of either challenging for promotion to Division One.

Despite their poor form, Crusaders bowler Chad Keegan has been in a rich vein of form taking 12 wickets.

However, no-one has really shone with the bat so far and Andrew Strauss tops the averages with 35.

The Eagles have also been slow out of the blocks and aim to bounce back from their latest defeat at the hands of Lancashire Lightning.

Ronnie Irani's men were unable to contain Neil Fairbrother who scored 101 off 87 balls in the Lightning total of 254 for six.

Despite a century from Australian star Stuart Law, it was not enough as the Eagles were dismissed for 217.

THE DUCKWORTH/LEWIS SYSTEM

If matches are rain-affected the Duckworth Lewis system is used to reset targets. The system is based on what percentage of its resources (overs and wickets) a team have left. With 50 overs left and 10 wickets remaining, a team has 100 per cent of its resources left. The table shows the percentage of resources at other stages in the innings.

The procedure for working out targets is as follows:

1) For each innings: Use the table to calculate the resource percentage lost by the interruption and therefore calculate the resource percentage still available.

2) If team 2 have less resources available than team 1, calculate the ratio of the resources available to both teams. Team 2's revised target is obtained by scaling down team 1's score by this ratio.

3) If team 2 have more resources available than team 1, calculate the amount by which team 2's resources exceeds team 1's.

Work this out as a percentage of 225 (the average 50-over score in ECB matches and one-day internationals). This gives the extra runs to add to team score to give team 2's target.

HOW THE NORWICH UNION LEAGUE WORKS

The Norwich Union League operates on a three-up, three-down basis with the top three finishers in Division Two replacing the bottom three in Division One. Four points are awarded for a win, while teams will take two points each if matches are tied or the weather intervenes before the required number of overs have been completed and there is no result.

Matches will start at 1pm and end at 7.10pm with 45 overs per side, although all fixtures will begin 30 minutes earlier in September. Floodlit games will start at 4.10pm. The free-hit rule for no-balls applies to front-foot no-balls only. A batsman cannot be dismissed from the bowler's next delivery after such an infringement.

This season teams will face penalties for slow over rates. In the opinion of the umpire there are still overs to be bowled at the cut-off point then six runs will be added to the batting team for every over left to be bowled. If at cut-off time there are still four overs left to be bowled then 24 runs will be added to the batting team's score. The batting team will then go on and finish their overs. These will appear as penalty runs on the scorecard. If this takes the batting team over the target required then the match will finish at that point.
