

● OUTLAWS OUT TO AMBUSH SPITFIRES

Trent Bridge has top billing in the Norwich Union League Division One this week with third-placed Nottinghamshire Outlaws playing host to Kent Spitfires, who are currently second in the table.

The fine form of both sides this season should provide for an excellent spectacle as they look to keep the pressure on league leaders Leicestershire Foxes.

The Outlaws have one of the country's most prolific batting line-ups in Darren Bicknell, Usman Afzaal and Paul Johnson, but they must be on top form to get the better of the Spitfires' 26-wicket strike pairing of Martin Saggars and Ben Trott.

League leaders Leicestershire Foxes have a trip to the seaside to take on out-of-sorts Yorkshire Phoenix at Scarborough.

The Phoenix have dropped into the Division One relegation zone following a string of poor results and David Byas must hope his talented side perform to the best of their ability to upset the rampant Foxes.

Fourth-placed Warwickshire Bears, with captain Michael Powell in good spirit, will aim to close the six-point gap between themselves and the leading three with victory over Northamptonshire Steelbacks.

The Bears should start as favourites but the Steelbacks will have a point to prove after notching up their first win of the season last week.

South-west rivals Gloucestershire Gladiators, who have batsman Jeremy Snape in top form, and Somerset Sabres go head-to-head under the lights at Bristol on Tuesday in a mouthwatering clash.

The Gladiators' one-day specialists will be aiming to complete the double over the Sabres after emerging victorious at Taunton two weeks ago.

● LIGHTNING AIMING TO STRIKE BACK

Revenge will be in the air at Old Trafford when Durham Dynamos visit a Lancashire Lightning side looking to get their own back after the Dynamos emerged victorious from the reverse fixture at the Riverside in May.

The Dynamos won by 24 runs in a match that set them on their way to the top of the Norwich Union League Division Two table, while the Lightning have since struggled and currently lie in sixth place.

Martyn Moxon's Dynamos will have one eye on New Road where their nearest challengers, in-form Worcestershire Royals, who hammered Derbyshire Scorpions by 138 runs last week, will be taking on struggling Middlesex Crusaders.

The Rose Bowl will host an intriguing battle when Hampshire Hawks, with Alan Mullally keen to increase his tally of three wickets, welcome the wounded Scorpions to West End. The third-placed Hawks will start as favourites against the fifth-placed Scorpions, who have been unable to recapture their good early-season form.

Monday sees Norwich Union League Player of the Month Ronnie Irani take his Essex Eagles side to Hove to take on Sussex Sharks in the hope that playing under lights will help his team get off the bottom of the table.

And there is another day-night fixture at Old Trafford on Wednesday when the Lightning and the Royals play their second game in four days.

ESSEX EAGLES captain Ronnie Irani admitted to a "bitter-sweet" feeling after being awarded the Norwich Union League Player of the Month Award for June.

Irani produced a string of fine performances in his side's four matches, notching up 182 runs - including a superb 108 not out against Glamorgan Dragons - and taking six wickets.

But the Eagles' failure to win any of those four games saw them slump to the bottom of the Division Two table - taking the gloss off an otherwise fruitful month for the all-rounder.

Irani, who will be presented with his award before the game against Sussex Sharks, admitted: "I'm well chuffed, especially to get an award that includes everyone else in the country.

"It's obviously an honour to win any award but I feel my personal performances have been good this year and yes, I'm very pleased.

"But the award does seem a little bitter-sweet in a way. It's been the case that we have underachieved this summer so far, but we're only half-way through.

"A lot of our youngsters will be getting a good go this summer in the Norwich Union League and I'm hoping me keeping my performance levels up and doing well will hopefully guide a few of these youngsters so we've got a hell of a team for the next few years coming.

"But initially the award and the way I've done this season - I'm very happy with that and I want to improve on it by the end of the year so I can pick up another one of these awards."

Irani's remarkable performance against the Dragons was the one real highlight of the Eagles' disappointing month - and the player himself reckons it to be his best moment of the season so far.

"Obviously the 100 off 55 balls against Glamorgan - that would be the one that sticks out the most, he said.

Ronnie Irani at the launch of this season's Norwich Union League

Ronnie Irani playing a few shots during this season's launch of the Norwich Union League at The Oval, closely watched by Paul Nixon and Gemma Chapman

"When you go out and play in the one-day game, you want to go out and entertain. We are in the entertainment business.

"I've had a few four-fors in the bowling department, which has been fairly steady, but that hundred has been the key for me so far this year."

Irani's batting and bowling ability means he has always been regarded as a one-day specialist, and he admits he still relishes the shorter format and the added responsibilities of captaincy.

"I'm loving it, especially being captain," he said. "There's a little bit more pressure, but if you're under pressure it means you're achieving in life.

"I'm quite happy with the general stuff that goes with captaincy, but you just have to go out there and enjoy it.

"I wouldn't be against 40 overs in this competition, but 45 overs is alright. I think the tournament's unique on its own and we've got to the lead the way rather than copy everyone else, and obviously the Norwich Union League does that.

"I think the coloured clothing and the white ball are right for this form of cricket, there's no doubt about it. And if we could have lights all over the country, that would be even better.

"From the players' point of view, we enjoy the games too. The game is ideally set to provide one-day players for the future of England.

"The players love it just as much as the fans - we've had full houses in Essex this year with kids in for a pound.

"You've got to get the kids coming through the turnstiles and the Norwich Union League is ideal for that. It's brilliant. It's the way forward."

Irani follows on from Nottinghamshire Outlaws' Usman Afzaal in being named Norwich Union League Player of the Month and after Afzaal was called up to the England team for the first Test against Australia, the Eagles captain admits he would cherish a return to the international scene himself.

"It would be nice, but I really can't say about that," he confessed.

"It's not in my hands, I just keep doing the business and working hard on my game. But it would be like a brilliant early Christmas present if I did get called up."

MATCH PREVIEW

Second plays third in the Norwich Union League Division One as Kent Spitfires descend on Trent Bridge to take on Nottinghamshire Outlaws.

The fine form of both sides this season should provide for an excellent spectacle as they look to keep the pressure on league leaders Leicestershire Foxes.

Impressive victories in the last round of games put the pair six points clear of rest of the field and underlined their credentials as title contenders.

The Outlaws will have a point to prove after losing out to the Spitfires in the reverse fixture last month when a rain-affected game resulted in a 60-run victory for Matthew Fleming's side.

The might of the hosts' batting - Darren Bicknell, Usman Afzaal and Paul Johnson have scored nearly 900 runs between them this season - will be tested by the Kent Spitfires' 26-wicket strike partnership of Martin Saggers and Ben Trott.

WARWICKSHIRE BEARS versus NORTHAMPTONSHIRE STEELBACKS

MATCH PREVIEW

Northamptonshire Steelbacks take on the Warwickshire Bears at Edgbaston fresh from their first victory of the season in the last round of matches.

The Steelbacks edged past Yorkshire Phoenix by three wickets at Wantage Road to end a miserable run of five straight defeats in the Norwich Union League Division One.

A follow-up win in Birmingham would suggest the Steelbacks have the ability to beat relegation but the Bears, currently sitting in fourth position, will have plenty to say about that.

Bob Woolmer's men have seen the gap to third place increase to six points and success against the Steelbacks would keep the Bears in title contention and erase the memories of a five-wicket defeat to Leicestershire Foxes last time out.

Vital to their cause will be stopping Steelbacks openers Mike Hussey and Mal Loye, whose contribution of over 400 runs has been the only bright spot for Bob Carter's struggling side.

YORKSHIRE PHOENIX versus LEICESTERSHIRE FOXES

MATCH PREVIEW

■ Out-of-sorts Yorkshire Phoenix will start as second favourites when they welcome a rampant Leicestershire Foxes side to Scarborough.

The Phoenix have suffered an alarming slide down the Norwich Union League Division One table and could soon be in real relegation trouble despite the wealth of talent at David Byas' disposal.

With only two wins out of six so far this season they are 16 points behind the Foxes, who sit atop the pile with the only 100% record in the country.

The sides' last outings summed up their campaigns. While the Foxes were busy demolishing Surrey Lions by 128 runs, the Phoenix were hobbling to a three-wicket loss to Northamptonshire Steelbacks, who had previously failed to get off the mark all year.

The Leicestershire Foxes bat a long way down the order - Aftab Habib came in at nine against the Lions - and the Phoenix batsmen will have to match them if they are to cause an upset.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE GLADIATORS versus SOMERSET SABRES

MATCH PREVIEW

■ Somerset Sabres will be out for revenge when they travel to Bristol to take on Gloucestershire Gladiators in a mouthwatering day-night fixture.

The second Norwich Union League Division One clash between the two south-west rivals this season will see the Sabres looking to get their own back after suffering a narrow eight-run defeat at the hands of the Gladiators in Taunton two weeks ago.

Jamie Cox's side lie sixth in the table following another defeat at their home ground since then, a disappointing three-wicket reverse against Nottinghamshire Outlaws in which they failed to defend a total of 248.

The Gladiators also go into the derby showdown on the back of a defeat after they were bowled out for 86 in the course of a 31-run loss to Kent Spitfires.

But despite their indifferent performances this season, Mark Alleyne's men will start as slight favourites to complete the double over the Sabres.

HAMPSHIRE HAWKS versus DERBYSHIRE SCORPIONS

MATCH PREVIEW

The Rose Bowl will host an intriguing Norwich Union League Division Two clash when Hampshire Hawks take on Derbyshire Scorpions.

After a slow start to the season the third-placed Hawks have got into their stride while the Scorpions have slipped down to fifth in the table they led in the early stages of the campaign.

Both sides were in action under the lights last week and although the Hawks responded positively with a 79-run victory over Sussex Sharks, the Scorpions were thoroughly humiliated by Worcestershire Royals in a 138-run thrashing.

Scorpions captain Rob Bailey, the division's leading scorer with 275 runs to his name, will demand more support from his colleagues as they prepare to take on a dangerous Hawks bowling attack.

England international Alan Mullally has been ably assisted by Dimitri Mascarenhas and 19-year-old Chris Tremlett as the Hawks continue their progress up the table.

LANCASHIRE LIGHTNING versus DURHAM DYNAMOS

MATCH PREVIEW

Lancashire Lightning welcome Durham Dynamos to Old Trafford looking to exact revenge for their defeat at Chester-le-Street in May.

In an early statement of their intent this season the Dynamos stunned the Lightning with a 24-run win that sent them on their way to the top of the table.

Martyn Moxon's charges have built a reputation for producing all-round team performances to pull off victories and it was well illustrated in their last outing when they overcame Glamorgan Dragons by two wickets.

The Lightning, on the other hand, have been disappointed for much of the year but finally got it together under lights last time out when they beat Essex Eagles by 37 runs.

Neil Fairbrother made a welcome return to form with a magnificent 101 that took him to fourth in the division's run-getters list, and it will be his one-day guile that will be required to prevent a Dynamos double over the home side.

WORCESTERSHIRE ROYALS versus MIDDLESEX CRUSADERS

MATCH PREVIEW

Worcestershire Royals will start as favourites when they take on the Middlesex Crusaders at New Road in the Norwich Union League Division Two.

The Royals' impressive form of late has taken them to second in the table, while the eighth-placed Crusaders blew the chance to get four valuable points when their game against Essex Eagles ended in a thrilling tie.

Owais Shah's unbeaten 52 provided the only highlight for Angus Fraser's struggling side and the England international will need to be on top form to give the visitors any hope of upsetting the Royals.

Graeme Hick's men put on a superb display in their last outing, thrashing Derbyshire Scorpions by 138 runs, opener Phil Weston continuing his excellent run with a brilliant 134.

With Vikram Solanki also looking sharp and Andy Bichel bowling some menacing opening spells, the Crusaders' chances of registering their second win of the season look slim.

SUSSEX SHARKS versus ESSEX EAGLES

MATCH PREVIEW

Ronnie Irani will hope his Norwich Union League Player of the Month award inspires his team-mates to greater things when they travel to Hove to take on Sussex Sharks.

Irani has been fighting almost a lone battle to get the Eagles off the foot of the Division Two table but his efforts have largely been in vain with five defeats from seven keeping his side rock bottom.

However, they managed to end their barren spell with two points in a nail-biting tied game against Middlesex Crusaders in which Ashley Cowan provided some cheer with five for 14.

And if the previous meeting between the Eagles and the Sharks this season is anything to go by there will be another thriller in store - under lights this time.

The Sharks were victorious by just one run at Chelmsford in May but have managed only one other win so far this year and remain seventh in the table, just two points ahead of the Eagles.

LANCASHIRE LIGHTNING versus WORCESTERSHIRE ROYALS

MATCH PREVIEW

Lancashire Lightning and Worcestershire Royals will play their second Norwich Union League Division Two game in four days when they meet at Old Trafford.

The two sides renew hostilities under lights this time after the Royals triumphed in an amazing game between the pair at Worcester last month.

The Lightning looked certain to gain a morale-boosting win after dismissing the hosts for just 99, but a superb fightback from the Royals bowlers saw Bobby Simpson's troops bowled out for 89 as their poor form this season continued.

Since then the second-placed Royals have gone from strength to strength and showed a taste for the day-night format when they handed Derbyshire Scorpions a 138-run thrashing at Derby.

The Lightning have made something of an improvement too, lifting themselves off the bottom of the table with performances hinting at a possible revival.

THE DUCKWORTH/LEWIS SYSTEM

If matches are rain-affected the Duckworth Lewis system is used to reset targets. The system is based on what percentage of its resources (overs and wickets) a team have left. With 50 overs left and 10 wickets remaining, a team has 100 per cent of its resources left. The table shows the percentage of resources at other stages in the innings.

The procedure for working out targets is as follows:

1) For each innings: Use the table to calculate the resource percentage lost by the interruption and therefore calculate the resource percentage still available.

2) If team 2 have less resources available than team 1, calculate the ratio of the resources available to both teams. Team 2's revised target is obtained by scaling down team 1's score by this ratio.

3) If team 2 have more resources available than team 1, calculate the amount by which team 2's resources exceeds team 1's.

Work this out as a percentage of 225 (the average 50-over score in ECB matches and one-day internationals). This gives the extra runs to add to team score to give team 2's target.

HOW THE NORWICH UNION LEAGUE WORKS

The Norwich Union League operates on a three-up, three-down basis with the top three finishers in Division Two replacing the bottom three in Division One. Four points are awarded for a win, while teams will take two points each if matches are tied or the weather intervenes before the required number of overs have been completed and there is no result.

Matches will start at 1pm and end at 7.10pm with 45 overs per side, although all fixtures will begin 30 minutes earlier in September. Floodlit games will start at 4.10pm. The free-hit rule for no-balls applies to front-foot no-balls only. A batsman cannot be dismissed from the bowler's next delivery after such an infringement.

This season teams will face penalties for slow over rates. If in the opinion of the umpire there are still overs to be bowled at the cut-off point then six runs will be added to the batting team for every over left to be bowled. If at cut-off time there are still four overs left to be bowled then 24 runs will be added to the batting team's score. The batting team will then go on and finish their overs. These will appear as penalty runs on the scorecard. If this takes the batting team over the target required then the match will finish at that point.
